Central Coast Family History Society Inc.

MEMBERS MEETING 6th February 2021

(Next Meeting: 3rd April 2021)

Lions Club Hall behind the Research Centre

COVID-19 Meeting Registration starts at 12 Noon

General Meeting Commences: 1:00 pm

Break: Afternoon Tea available in the Research Centre

Guest Speaker after the Break.

MEETING RAFFLE and TEA Tickets will be available at registration.

Guest Speaker: Liz Parkinson

Liz Parkinson is an Australian artist who draws and paints, and she also makes jewellery and masks. She is a University graduate and has worked at many jobs including being a high school teacher. After disillusionment with the teaching life, she became a silversmith, environmentalist, and author.

Liz has written and illustrated a number of books about the history of the local areas of Terrigal, Wamberal and Forresters Beach.

DNA

DNA Special Interest Group is off and running again this year on the selected Tuesdays each month from 2:00-4:00pm.

Come along and join with other DNA testers and learn about your DNA, from beginning to intermediate level. Even if you haven't done a DNA test yet, you are welcome to attend and learn how DNA can be used in family history studies.

The first hour is a talk and small webcast or lesson and then working individually on your results with help from the convenor and input from others in the group who have advanced further.

This is a relaxed group with a break halfway for a cuppa and chat.

Nominal cost of $5:00 to cover notes for each session.
