May 1st Robert Nash Huguenot Society 	Potted Biography 'Robert Nash was born in London but has lived in Australia for 30 years. He is descended from Huguenot silkweavers from Sedan in the Ardennes, who settled in Spitalfields in London's East End at the beginning of the 18th century. He was educated at Cambridge and Oxford universities. He is a Life Fellow of the Huguenot Society of Great Britain and Ireland, and a Foundation Member of the Huguenot Society of Australia, of which he is also Secretary and Editor. He has edited (and partly written) that society's two books on Huguenot families in Australia: The Hidden Thread, and A New Tapestry. He has also produced the CD-ROM 'Huguenot Surname Index', which is a complete name index of Huguenots in England and Ireland.
July 1st DR Kwong 	Andrew Kwong is an exile. A GP on the NSW Central Coast, he was brought up in rural China during the horrors of the Maoist Great Leap Forward of the 1950s (when millions starved) and the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution of the 1960s (when millions of educated and cultured Chinese were persecuted and murdered). His 2020 memoir, One Bright Moon, tells the story of this upbringing, and his escape to Macau, Hong Kong, and eventually Australia. 'One Bright Moon' is Andrew Kwong's memoir of growing up in small-town China as the son of 'high intellectuals' (college-educated parents), the persecution of his family, and their eventual escape to new lives.'
